LT GEN SIR JOHN LORIMER KCB DSO MBE – PRESIDENT'S REPORT 17/18

20. Seventy years of the Army Winter Sports Association; what an achievement! I suspect that Field Marshal Montgomery and his team will be looking down on us with tremendous pride in all that has been achieved since 1947. From its early days with only 2 sports (Alpine and Nordic), the AWSA has grown to today's 8 Disciplines and a comprehensive calendar of events. Once again, my thanks go out to everyone over the years, who have helped develop the AWSA into what it is today.

21. 2018 has been another very positive and successful year for the AWSA. The Management Team has continued to work tremendously hard to enable this success and I would like to acknowledge some key personnel: first, the Chairman of the Association, Lieutenant General Patrick Sanders, who has continued to provide exceptionally strong support as Commander Field Army; the Vice Chairman, Brigadier Martin Moore, now in his third season, who – despite a very busy day job in Army HQ – has worked tirelessly to support the AWSA; and finally, the background team of Lt Col ‘Sarge’ Sargent (Sponsorship), Lt Col (Retd) Martyn Allen (Secretary), Lt Col James Rhodes (PF Manager), who have remained the bedrock of the Association. On behalf of all the athletes, coaches and officials who have benefited from your dedication and hard work, thank you.

22. I was delighted to see that the attendance levels at all events continued to be very high this season, with demand still outstripping supply. The task of providing winter sport for all soldiers continues to remain a harsh financial challenge. However, the figures indicate that due to the hard work of all the organising committees, the drive and determination of team captains and the application and courage of the competitors, we are succeeding.

23. In the 2018 Inter-Services Championships, we had a rather disappointing season in comparison to those preceding, taking only one out of the 12 male/female team events; falling a long way short of emulating last season’s 8 events, but I sense we may be in transition as some of our more established older athletes hang up their skis. The only team that took an Inter-Services honour was the Male Alpine team winning all four disciplines; Cresta; Male Bobsleigh; Female Luge. Special praise must go to the following individual winners: All members of the successful Men’s Alpine Team, LSgt Lamin Deen and LCpl Ray Bobsleigh, Sgt Danielle Scott RAMC – Female Luge.

24. Our elite athletes continue to thrive, with Pte Rob Poth selected onto the Dalancy programme with the GB Alpine team, Sgt Amanda Lightfoot on the Biathlon World Cup circuit, Pte Miles Cawood who has been selected onto the GB Snowboard circuit, LSgt Lamin Deen and Pte Nick Gleeson on the Bobsleigh World Cup Circuit and Gdsm Raymond Thompson and Sgt Danielle Scott, who represent GB in Luge. We wish them the very best in their quests as they progress towards qualification for the 2022 Olympic Winter Games.

25. Army Winter Sports is hugely important to the retention of our officers and soldiers and I am delighted that it continues to flourish, despite the increasing strain on financial budgets. I look forward to seeing athletes, coaches, officials and support staff next season, either on snow or ice, or perhaps even both. Good luck for the new season ahead.

SUMMARY

26. It has been an excellent 17/18 season. The AWSA continues to be in very good order and the very best of wishes to everyone.
